

Website Terms of Use

The conditions on which access to any website owned and/or operated by any of M. A. O'Kane Consultants Inc., O'Kane Consultants USA, Inc., O'Kane Consultants Pty Limited and O'Kane Consultants (NZ) Limited (collectively, "Okane") is permitted are as follows:

Okane takes all reasonable care to ensure that the materials and information on its website are accurate and complete. However, all such materials and information are provided for general information purposes only. They are not intended to be comprehensive or to include advice on which you may rely. You should always consult a suitably qualified professional engineer or other professional on any specific engineering or professional matter.

All liability is excluded in respect of any loss or damage which may arise in connection with your use of or reliance upon any materials and information (including video or audio information, if any) appearing on this website.

Links from this site to any other website are provided for convenience only, and do not imply affiliation with or endorsement by Okane. Okane is not responsible for the content of external websites that link to this site or which are linked from this site.

Okane may monitor visits to this website and retain information about its users (including, without limitation, the use of cookies and other browser-generated information, and also any personal information you provide when communicating with us). Except as may otherwise be provided in Okane's website privacy notice, Okane will not provide any of this data to third parties.

Where access to restricted parts of this site is subject to more specific terms, those terms apply instead of these.

Copyright in the pages forming this website belongs to Okane, unless otherwise stated. All rights are reserved.

You may print or download any material on this web site and retain a copy of it for your personal use. You will require our permission to make any other use of the material, including, in particular, its incorporation into any other electronic or hard copy document.
